

■ Dancing Around Doing Your Taxes?

A TAX WORKSHOP FOR INDIVIDUAL ARTISTS

Presented by the Arts Council of Greater New Haven

Feb 7, 5 to 7 pm

at Educational Center for the Arts
55 Audubon St. New Haven, CT

*Don't wait until April to begin your taxes!
While you're at it, get a head start on next year's taxes with record-keeping advice from a pro, too!*

Presenter: Fred Dalicandro of East of the River Consulting in Glastonbury, CT, small business consultant and tax specialist for over 25 years

This workshop is designed for artists seeking tax guidance. The workshop will provide information on filing your tax return, when to declare your art as a business, and how to record and maximize your arts-related deductions.

Important topics include:

Determining how best to file for your arts-related work

Which forms you will need

Expenses you may not know you can deduct

This workshop is free to Arts Council members, $5 for non-members,
and requires registration.

To register, email info@newhavenarts.org

www.newhavenarts.org for more information

