

CONNECTICUT ARTS ALLIANCE

invites you to join arts advocates from throughout the state for

Connecticut Arts Advocacy Day

Co-sponsored by House Majority Leader Denise Merrill, House Minority Leader Lawrence Cafero, Senate Majority Leader
Martin Looney, Senate Minority Leader John McKinney, Senate President
Donald Williams, and Senator Toni Harp, Deputy President Pro Tempore

Wednesday, March 24, 2010

Room 310 Old Appropriations
The Capitol
Hartford, CT

Schedule

- 10:45 to 11:20 Networking/photo opportunities
- 11:20 Selections from The Who's Rock Musical, Tommy
From the Connecticut Repertory Theatre production, UConn, Storrs
- 11:30 Press Conference featuring speakers from education, business and the arts
- Throughout the day Meet with your legislators (make appointments in advance)

To Register:

Send Your Name, Organization (if applicable), Town and Contact Info to info@newhavenarts.org

Visit www.ctartsalliance.org for Advocacy Tips,
Budget Information, Locating your Legislator