Announcing an Open Call for an upcoming art exhibit at the Gallery Upstairs at The Institute Library.

Waste Management:
Reuse, Reimagine, Repurpose

Organized by
Rashmi Talpade & Martha Willette Lewis

This Fall we are looking for Collages and Assemblages in response to The Climate Crisis: objects, images, animations, poetry, books, zines addressing Our World, Our relationship to Waste, Consumerism, Nature & Our Place in the Ecosystem. We are looking for an interesting, nuanced range of works- all mediums will be entertained- but please note our cache of AV equipment is limited.

It is FREE OF CHARGE and EASY to participate. This is open to Library members and non-members alike.

PLEASE READ ALL INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY BEFORE EMAILING OR CALLING WITH QUESTIONS.

Important dates:

- Please RSVP your interest by September 1st, 2022
- The show will run from October 2022 through January, 2023
- Opening reception will be Oct 6 2022
- There will be several exciting, related events, TBD

Guidelines:

- RSVP your intention to participate by Sept 1st - send us an image of each work include with it your name, age, any comments you may have and your contact info including email, mailing address and phone number. This is for us and will not be shared with the public. Send it to Gallery@institutelibrary.org.
- Small is good! Please keep all art under 30” H x 26” W - if you have something larger you would like to submit, please email the gallery with an image of the work to discuss- we are happy to hear your thoughts, but space IS limited.
• Up to two works by each artist—we may only exhibit only one—pending availability of space.

• We will send an automated reply, which will include drop off information etc. We will contact you if we have questions.

• All eligible work will be included in the exhibit; however, since it is a family friendly venue, we do retain the right to refuse work containing inappropriate or offensive language or imagery. This exhibit is meant to be inclusive and welcoming to all. The assessment of this is at the discretion of the exhibition organizers.

THANK YOU FOR PARTICIPATING!

All the Best,

Martha & Rashmi
